Art Unit: 3651

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 22, 24 and 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Schroeder et al. (U.S. Patent 5,238,099).

Schroeder et al. show a roller-top belt 12 arranged to travel in a first loop and having rollers 30 extending beyond inner and outer sides of the belt (see figure 3) and a drive belt 40 which travels in a second loop inside the first loop whose outer surface is positionable into driving contact with rollers 30.

Re claims 24 and 25, it is inherent that the rollers and belt 40 are of suitable high-friction material such there is not slippage between the two.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 23 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Schroeder et al. in view of Costanzo (U.S. Patent 6,758,323).

Schroeder et al. do not show rollers 30 as having axles. However, shown by Costanzo are transfer rollers 40 in Figure 4 that have axles. To include rollers with axles on Schroeder et al. would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art as it might provide more control over the direction the rollers cause the engaged article to move.

Applicant's arguments filed 4/15/2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The second belt of Schroeder et al is clearly inside the loop of the first belt and it is in fact a drive belt. While some of the belt is outside the edges of the first belt it does not change the fact that the second loop runs within the first loop as is claimed.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

Claims 1-21 are allowed.
